I. INTRODUCTION

For more than 50 years, the dedicated team at Gulf Coast Trades Center (GCTC) has had one clear mission: To assist victims that come from hard places to develop vocationally, academically, and socially so that they are capable of making positive contributions to their local communities. Gulf Coast Trades Center, now a Rite of Passage Program (GCTC) is seeking proposals for the purchase of a mid to large size SUV.

II. ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

GCTC is passionate about the belief that disadvantaged, and discouraged adolescent victims are resilient and that they possess inherent strengths that, once reclaimed, will lead to competency and success. The GCTC campus has been a temporary home to thousands of victims between the ages 15-18 since 1971. In addition to giving victims an opportunity to complete their high school education, they have been able to work toward earning certificates in vocational trades such as carpentry, brick laying, auto mechanics, horticulture, culinary arts, and computer information systems.

Over the years, changes have been made to accommodate for the changing needs of the adolescent victims serve. But the one thing that has remained constant is our desire to help adolescent victims recognize that they can break the cycle of chaos from which they came to become productive and successful adults.
